

Llanberis Trail

Explore the rugged mountainous region of the Snowdonia National Park. It is located in tranquillity and the truly unique natural beauty of North Wales. With a full range of diverse outdoor pursuits.

Explore the surrounding countryside and numerous planned walks some guided walking available).

For the ambitious experienced walker why not ascend the heights of Mount Snowdon, at 3,560ft the highest peak in Wales, from the summit, under clear conditions splendid views are always a thrill worthy of the climb.

Ruins of the 12th Century Castle at Llansteffan.

How to get here

Facilities

For all ages The Snowdonia National Park is ideal for mountain hiking, canoe and water sports or just to enjoy the fresh air and fine views from the restaurant terrace.

Local Transport

With a regular shuttle bus link from Llanberis along the mountain pass road, getting to the visitors centre is easy, local timetables are posted at all bus stops.

Around Llanberis

You'll find no shortage of amenities and eating places from a quick bite to a more substantial meal much choice is on offer.

Llanberis National Park visitor centre,
Llanberis Pass Road, North Wales, LL55 4HA

e-mail: llanberisnatpk@wales.gov.uk

Tel/Fax: 01732 234675

www.travellanberis.org.uk

Mountain Guide

The Llanberis Pass

Guided Walks

Nature Trail

Summit Cafe

Orienteering

Gift Shop

Explore
NORTH WALES

www.northwales.gov.uk